On behalf of the committed men and women of the Murray City Police Department, I am once again pleased to submit our Annual Report. This 2009 report contains information related to our department organization, our services, our crime statistics, and our accomplishments.

The staff and officers of our department recognize that Murray City is a vibrant and diverse community with a rich history and an exciting future. We understand the level of expectation that the citizens have for us. We will continue to strive to meet that challenge with both high performance and innovative programs. We are always working towards long-term solutions to problems and challenges that arise in our community.

Our primary objective is to ensure the safety of the people who live, work, and visit our city. We will continue to develop programs, implement new initiatives and technology which will allow us to accomplish these objectives.

Sincerely,

Peter A. Fondaco
Chief of Police

Civilian of the Year

Tom Kern

The Civilian Employee of the Year Award is presented for recognition of exceptional and dedicated service to the Murray City Police Department and the Citizens of Murray City.

Murray Police Department has experienced a continuing growth of criminal cases wherein forensic evidence generates usable leads to assist detectives in solving cases.

In the short time Criminalist Tom Kern has been with the Murray City Police Department he has processed hundreds of crime scenes and related evidence that has resulted in the identification and arrest of over 90 suspects. Of these arrests approximately 17 were from incidents where the only evidentiary lead was a latent fingerprint. Tom processed the print and a suspect was identified and arrested.

Tom converted the equipment and processes used by our Crime Scene Investigators to make the Murray City Police Crime Lab one of the leading evidence processing centers in the State.

Tom was also instrumental in making Murray City Police Department one of the first agencies to join in a partnership with the State of Utah Crime Lab.

Working with multiple training and certification agencies, Tom has established detailed training schedules for Murray's Crime Scene Investigators to be able to utilize the most current and modern collection processing procedures available. Tom continues to spearhead training for the Crime Scene Investigators by facilitating training certification classes that include, but are not limited to: blood splatter, underwater evidence recovery, DNA collection, cyber crime, digital imaging, and fingerprint analysis.

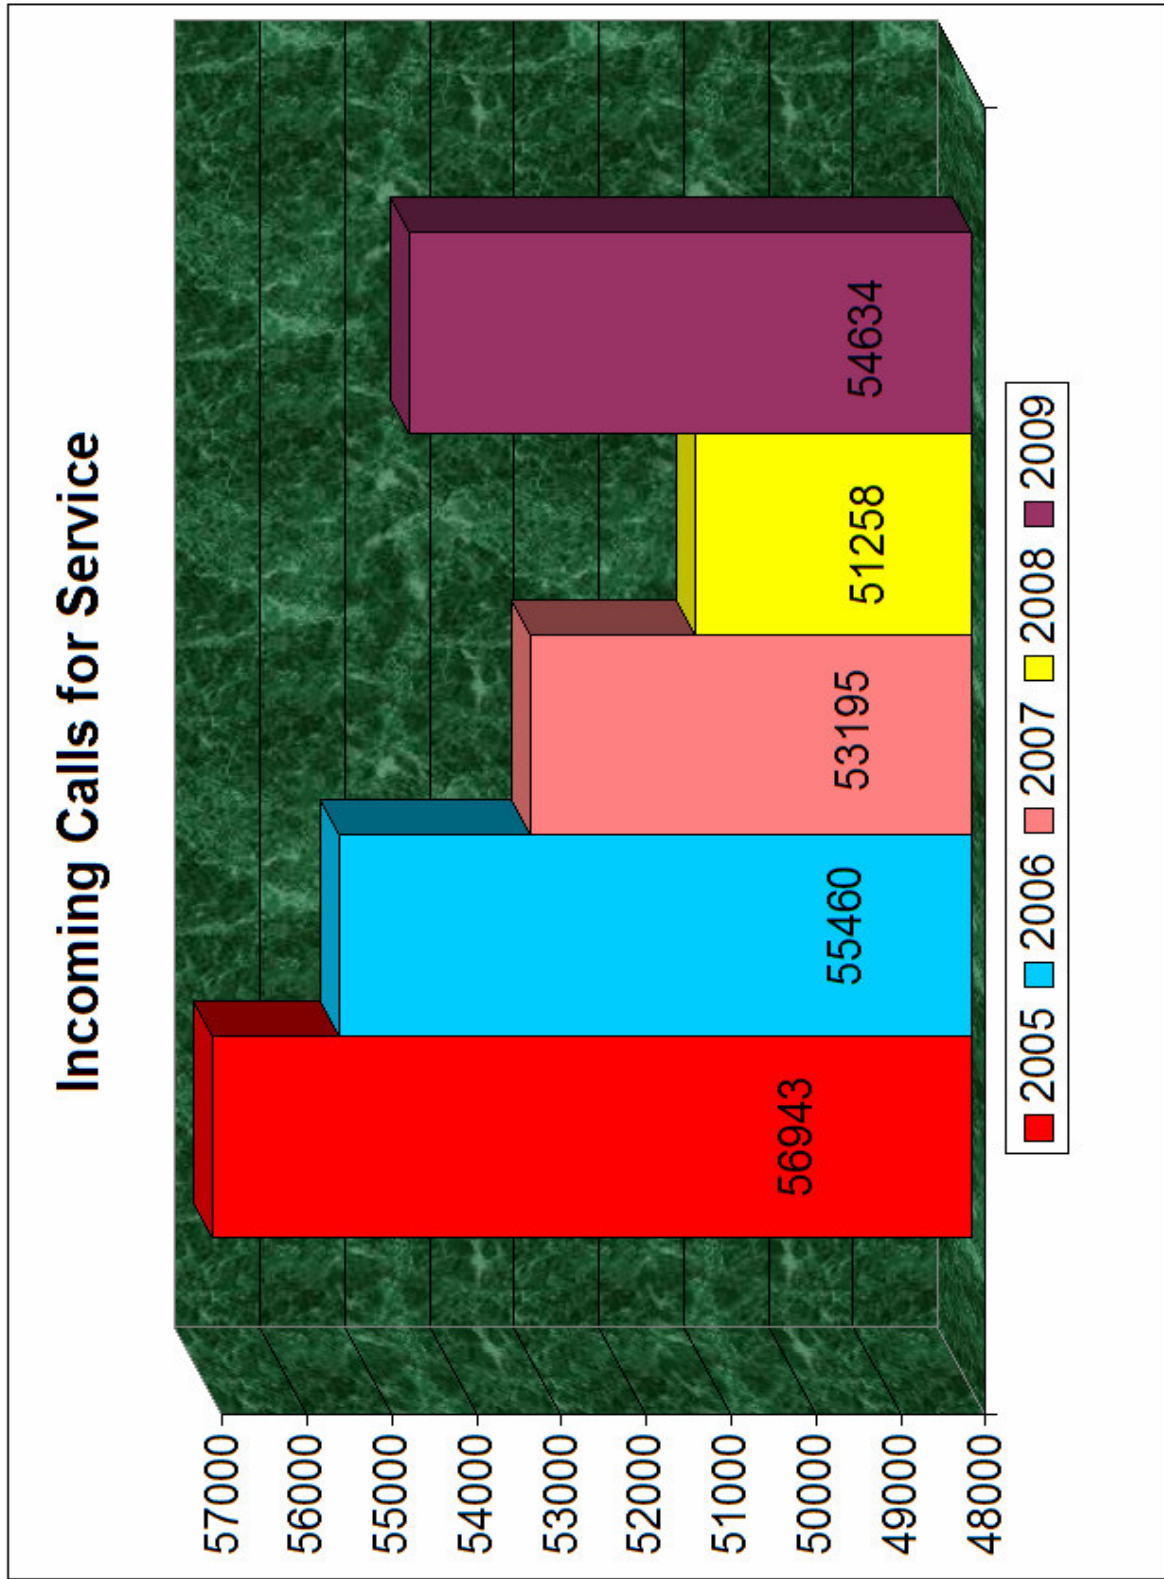

Tom's practical knowledge of forensic analysis has provided information that has been used to apply for a grant to purchase an Automated Fingerprint Identification system (AFIS). This system will expedite the processing time for in house latent finger and palm print searches. With Tom's assistance, this system will also be used by Crime Scene Investigators from other agencies.

Tom's talent lies in his working relationships with the Crime Scene Investigations team, Murray Police Officers, and other agencies. His expertise in forensic practices and knowledge, as it relates to evidence and crime scene processing, makes Tom a valuable asset to the Murray City Police Department.

A very valuable addition to Murray City Police Department's Crime Lab, Tom Kern is deserving of the Civilian Employee of the Year Award.

VICE

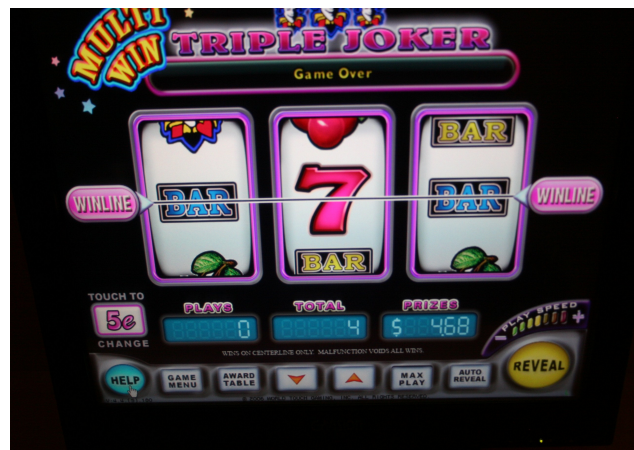

An investigation was launched in June 2009 into the Fortune Cyber Café (FCC) located at 625 W. 5300 S. #F in Murray. The FCC purported itself, when applying for a Murray City business license, to be a business offering zodiac, astrological and tarot card readings and internet. The FCC was a gambling operation. The FCC had 48 gaming stations where a gambler could play keno, video poker or video slot machines. U.S. currency was used to gamble and paid out for winnings.

The investigation included three investigative subpoenas for bank records and five search warrants. The initial portion of the case culminated in a search warrant at the FCC; ten suspects were arrested and charged with misdemeanor counts of gambling, possession of a gambling device, gambling promotion and felony counts of money laundering and, engaging in a pattern of unlawful activity. Two suspects were arrested and charged with possession of methamphetamine with intent to distribute (over one ounce was seized), 48 suspects were arrested and charged with misdemeanor charges of gambling or possession of marijuana or possession of drug paraphernalia and three suspects were booked on numerous outstanding warrants.

During the course of the investigation which is still on going, as of March 2010, the parent companies, owners, managers, accountants and employees of the FCC were identified. The financial accounts used by the FCC to conduct business were identified. A total of 17 undercover operations and 32 surveillance operations were conducted at the FCC and at the residences of the FCC's managers.

Luis, a member of DEA Metro Narcotics Task Force and the Murray City Police Department was nominated for a Citation of Honor along with Officer Paul Thompson of Davis Metro Narcotics and Special Agent Mark Bacon of DEA Metro. The three were instrumental in the investigation of a multi state Mexican Drug Trafficking Organization.

Officer Thompson was the case agent for Davis Metro and SA Bacon was the DEA case agent. Davis Metro didn't have a Hispanic Agent so requested the assistance of DEA Metro. Luis Argueta worked as the undercover in this case and not to slight the work of Officer Thompson or SA Bacon it was a case that Luis excelled at. GPS trackers were used, a Title III was initiated and several sources of meth and cocaine were discovered in association with the main target.

Customers were identified in Utah, Idaho, Nevada and Wyoming. Several wiretaps were initiated and one load of several pounds of methamphetamine was intercepted. This one case resulted in the seizure of $80,000 in assets, 13 Federal Indictments, 42 arrests.

This case also resulted in an investigation involving Wyoming DCI and ATF that produced another 8 Federal Indictments and 24 more arrests. Luis also was instrumental in assisting other taskforces in the past year, such as the Utah County Major Crimes Task Force, in addition to the numerous cases at DEA Metro Narcotics Task Force where Luis has also worked the undercover assignment to assist the other groups of the Task Force. Luis is a true asset to the DEA Metro Narcotics Task Force and the Law Enforcement community.

His willingness to assist and effectiveness in these many cases is the reason that Luis was deservedly nominated for Narcotics Officer of the Year.

Victim Advocate Program

The Murray Crime Victim Advocate Program was developed to provide assistance and crisis intervention to victims of violent crime. The bulk of our caseload consists of domestic violence related cases; however, we also provide assistance in sexual assault cases, elder abuse, child physical and sexual abuse, robbery, stalking, traumatic deaths, DUI's with injuries, homicides, suicides, and other violent crimes. The program receives some funding through the VOCA (Victims of Crime Act) grant. Each year we track our programs statistics and the following chart shows the number of new clients that we serve each year. The Advocates provided assistance and support to new clients as well as ongoing clients. Last year 7,831 services were provided to those who were victims of crime.

Case Examples:

The Murray CVA Program relocated an 87 year old domestic violence victim to a safe location. The victim was hospitalized after a domestic violence assault reported to the Murray Police Department. The advocate program was made aware of this case and started working with him to provide assistance and resources. It was determined that it was not safe for this elderly male to return to his home, so the advocates worked with Adult Protective Services and his medical providers to find a safe and appropriate place for him to relocate to.

A father physically abused his son causing severe bruises. The child was afraid of his dad, but was consistent and brave to tell police and his therapist what occurred. A Murray Police Detective investigated the incident along with DCFS. The father was arrested for the crime. The suspect turned around and blamed his x-wife and then the child for fabricating the story, etc. Our program assisted the child and his mom with information and assistance throughout the criminal justice process, provided additional counseling resources, and low-cost legal resources to help them.
